

103^D CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

H. R. 3260

To require the Comptroller General of the United States to conduct a study regarding the ability of Mexico to carry out its obligations under the North American Free Trade Agreement and the NAFTA Supplemental Agreements.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

OCTOBER 12, 1993

Mr. TRAFICANT introduced the following bill; which was referred to the Committee on Ways and Means

A BILL

To require the Comptroller General of the United States to conduct a study regarding the ability of Mexico to carry out its obligations under the North American Free Trade Agreement and the NAFTA Supplemental Agreements.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. STUDY.

4 The Comptroller General of the United States shall
5 undertake a study regarding the ability, on both a short-
6 term and a long-term basis, of the Government of Mexico
7 to carry out its obligations under the North American

1 Free Trade Agreement and the NAFTA Supplemental
2 Agreements. The study shall specifically address the effect
3 of the Government of Mexico's performance in carrying
4 out such obligations on manufacturing and employment
5 in the United States, as well as the ability of that Govern-
6 ment to enforce its environmental or other regulatory obli-
7 gations under such Agreements.

8 SEC. 2. SUBMISSION OF REPORT TO CONGRESS.

9 Within 1 year after the date of the enactment of this
10 Act, the Comptroller General of the United States shall—

11 (1) complete the study required under section
12 1; and

13 (2) submit to the Congress a report containing 14 the results of the study.
